

In the beginning

To Know Me...Is To Love Me...Just Because

It was...

Whose resilient spirit broke all barriers so little girls can shine
To be loved, respected and lifted up at all times

It was her Faith and Courage, for little girls...now women to set the stage,
To be outspoken, confident, daring and brave

Her light pointed North, as she cleared the path so little girls...Now women
Can stand strong, radiate and be great.

So don't apologize for who you are or think that you are an offense...
Au Contraire

It's their insecurities, and lack of respect that they have embraced
How dare you stand toe-to-toe in their face, because you should know your place?

Just stay focus, look toward the North Star, and keep moving forward
Because we stand in sisterhood as one, and have your back

So, pick up your Bright Shining Torch and extend it to your Sister on the right or left
Whose arm is pointed toward the North Star
To hand it off to the next Bright Shining Star...

YOU!
